Arrangement by Jay Buckey
Cowboy

As I was a-walkin' one morning for pleasure I

F       G       C
spied a cow-puncher a strollin' along. His

F       G       C hat was threwed back and his spurs were a jinglin'. And

F       G       C
as he approached he was singing this song: "Whoop-ee" yi - yo, Git a - long lit - tle do - gies, It's your mis - for - tune and none of my own. Whoop - ee ty - yi yo, Git a - long lit - tle do - gies, you know that Wy - o - ming will be your new home."
